Mr. Bryan On Trusts.

"If any Republican tells you that the trust is a good thing, ask him why the Republican platform denounces the trusts. If the Republicans say that the trust is a bad thing, ask them why a Republican Administration allowed more trusts to be organized than were ever organized in all the previous history of the country."

The Senate Bill.

[Courier-Journal.]

The Republican Senators and eight Democrats at the session Tuesday passed the bill known as the Senate Majority Bill, so amended, however, as to make it practically a new measure.

It is the one that the Senate has been working on for several days. It provides for a State Board, consisting of one Democrat and one Republican, and the Attorney General as umpire; for a county board, to be appointed by the County Judge, consisting of one Democrat and one Republican, and the Circuit Clerk as umpire.

Only ministerial powers are vested in the boards, and the clerks and sheriffs of election are alternated between the two political parties.

Election officers must be appointed from lists made up by the county committees.

Coal Trust and The Strike.

Everybody knows that the coal trust is vastly interested in the re-election of Mr. McKinley.

The popular belief is that it has shown its desire to secure four more years of trust domination at Washington by a contribution of $500,000 to the Hanna corruption fund.

Yet it has not been willing to subordinate its greed and lust of oppression to the good of its party by doing justice to its industrial slaves in the anthracite region.

On the contrary, it has caused serious, if not fatal, harm to the cause it upholds, in giving a series of object lessons of trust rapacity and cruelty in the short history of the current strike.

Political News.

Hon. Champ Clark, of Missouri, will speak at Columbus, Ky., next Saturday. Gov. Bradley has promised to make a dozen speeches for the Republican party in Kentucky.

The wedding of Miss Anna Frazee, of Maysville, and Mr. Robert Graham Humlong is announced to take place in November.

CURRENT-HUKILL.

Mr. Isaac Newtown Current and Miss Jennie Hukill planned and executed a surprise on their friends Tuesday by going to Cincinnati and getting married. The wedding was not an elopement, the contracting parties merely choosing that plan for a quiet wedding.

The groom is a well known young man of this city, and is agent for the Jung Brewing Co., of Cincinnati. The groom is a pretty and stylish daughter of Wm. Hukill, Jr., who has lately removed to Lexington. They will go to housekeeping on Seventh street in the residence lately vacated by Mrs. J. W. Hite.

County Clerk Patton yesterday issued a marriage license to Benjamin F. Watkins and Miss Alice Linville. They were married by Rev. E. G. B. Mann yesterday afternoon.
